Think Bigger With Herman Miller Financial Solutions

Giving customers the environment and tools they need to fulfill their potential is top of mind at every corporate business. But so is the need to stick to your budget—a budget that seems to get tighter every year. Herman Miller Financial Solutions helps you get more from your budget with financing options that simplify financial planning, extend your buying power, and open new possibilities.

PacificWRO has partnered with LEAF Commercial Capital, Inc. to bring you Herman Miller Financial Solutions. LEAF's expertise in financing combined with our knowledge of work can give you an office that puts your people in the best position to drive success.

100% Financing

We finance your whole project, including installation, shipping and more.

Maximize Capital

Your monthly payments do not affect your established line of credit, cash reserves, or require a compensating deposit balance.

Inflation Friendly

As costs go up over the term of your contract, you pay the same rate as when you began. This allows you to stretch your dollars further.

Accounting Benefits

Balance sheet considerations, such as operational versus capital expenditures, are important decisions when investing in your agency. We help you design a financing solution that best fits your accounting and budget requirements.

Payment Terms

Terms can range from 12 to 72 months with flexible end-of term options. Extend the term to six years to lower your monthly payment.

Payment Structures

Schedule your payment to match your cash flow. Make a lower payment initially and structure future payments to grow as your revenue increases.

End-of-Term Options

You can own the equipment with a $1.00 Purchase Option. Or with a True Lease, you have the option to own or return the furniture at the end of the term, with an affordable payment during the term.

Add-on Options

With any of our options, you can add new Herman Miller furniture at any time with a simple increase to your monthly payment. Your office can grow as your business does.

Fast and Focused

Your personal financial specialist works directly with you and can provide credit decisions in hours. Same-day approvals are typical. We use our online tool to estimate payments in seconds. The minimal time required to complete our straightforward documents gives you more time to get on with your work.
